NAC Function

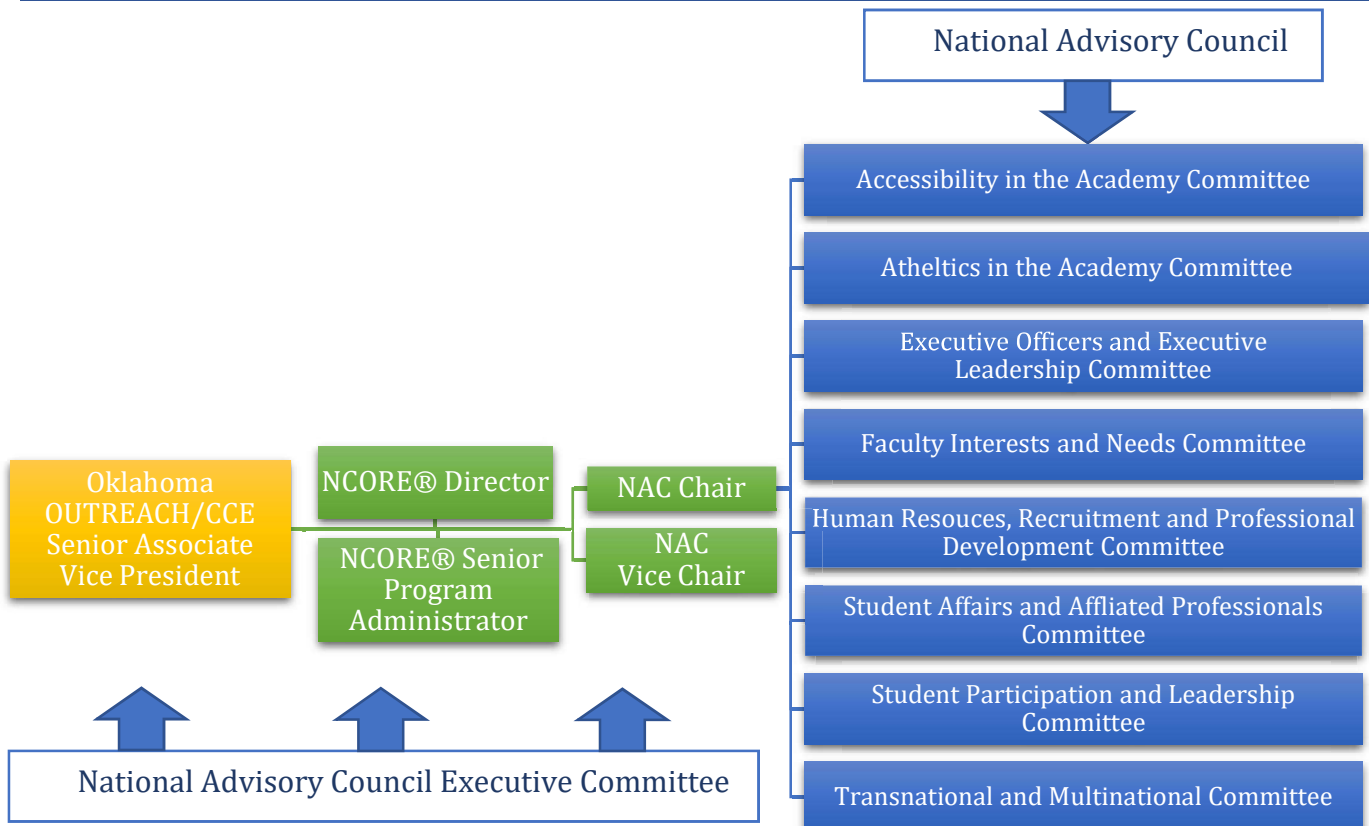

The function of the NCORE® National Advisory Council (NAC) is to assist in setting a vision for the conference by making recommendations concerning the conference program, keynote speakers, and special events. Each committee can have up to 10 members. As the name suggests, its function is advisory.

The NAC is composed of the members of eight committees:

- Accessibility to the Academy
- Athletics in the Academy
- Executive Officers and Executive Leadership
- Faculty Interests and Needs
- Human Resources, Recruitment, and Professional Development
- Student Affairs and Affiliated Professionals
- Student Participation and Leadership
- Transnational and Multinational

These committees, individually and collectively, provide ideas, recommendations, and critical feedback to improve and enhance the reach, relevance, and effectiveness of NCORE®. Together, the NAC works with the Executive Committee of the Southwest Center for Human Relations Studies, the conference's self-organized caucuses, NCORE staff, and other key stakeholders.

NAC Operating Structure

NAC Terms of Service

- Must have attended one NCORE® before application
- 3-year terms
- One additional reappointment term is allowable
- Each term requires a separate application and selection
- After six years of NAC service, individuals must rotate off for one year before eligibility to reapply
- Must serve at least one year on the committee before eligible for election to the committee chair
- Must serve a term as a NAC committee chair to be eligible for NAC Chair or Vice Chair.

Selection Process

NAC Chair and Vice Chair Selection Steps

1. Qualified applicants submit materials to SWCHRS.
2. Reviewed by NCORE® Executive Committee
3. Final selection made by NCORE® Director and OU Senior Associate Vice President
4. SWCHRS sends letters to applicants informing them of the outcome

NAC Committee Chairs Selection Steps

1. The committee Chair and Committee Vice-chair shall be chosen by the committee members during the NAC committee meeting at the NCORE® conference based on their demonstrated ability to do the work needed on the committee, including replying promptly to all committee and council communications.
2. If the Chair can no longer serve in their position at any time, the Vice Chair will become the Chair. Likewise, if the Vice Chair can no longer serve in their role at any time, then the committee will vote on a new Vice-chair immediately within 30 days of the vacated position.
3. Submission of a vote to the NAC chair to determine Chair eligibility.

NAC Committees Selection Steps

1. Applications submitted to SWCHRS.
2. NAC committee chairs review with committee members.
3. NAC Chair and Vice Chair submit recommendations
4. NCORE® Director and OU OUTREACH/CCE Senior Associate Vice President review recommendations and make appointments.
